Be not afraid of life. Believe that life is worth living, and your belief will help create the fact.—William James.

Delegate Kuhio, like a Bulletin ed, always brings results.

No citizens of free and independent minds will bow the knee to boss rule.

They might just as well begin now to write to Governor Stimson of New York.

When business men are called upon to talk politics they should forget all previous engagements.

Smuggling opium into Hawaii is being slowly and painfully removed from among the merry jests.

No government will run itself. If you honestly favor good government you will get out and do politics.

Bill Aylett may be out on a gunshot search for that $1600 that was lost in the shuffle some months ago.

It is easier to make poi without tap than to keep up the standard of Hawaii's prosperity without immigration.

Many of the people in the Fourth District need to get over the habit of thinking that they know more about it than the political workers who are out among the people to learn the real facts.

Candidates who have helped themselves more than they have helped the people are out of place in public office.

The jury that tried Halsey evidently decided that he had received punishment enough in waiting so long for the trial.

Tammany might run Judge Parker for Governor of New York. He knows how to be the goat and preserve his dignity.

Hawaii will never have a better chance to tell what it thinks of Calamity Howler McCandless than on the coming election day.

There is important work from now on till the eighth of November for the well-wisher of Hawaii on whom no politician has a string.

If President Taft or Colonel Roosevelt were asked their opinion on who Hawaii should send to Congress, what do you think they would say?

Every supporter of the public schools will vote for the Republicans whose school pledge is one that will straighten out Hawaii's school problem.

Quotations are slumping but there are no signs of an increasing number of otherwise sane citizens parting with their sugar stocks at such a needless sacrifice.

Maul Republicans appear to have finished their work with neatness and despatch. There is another ticket that should be voted straight by all Republicans.

If you believe in Hawaii and its prosperous future you will work with and vote with the Progressive Republicans, who are leading the fight in Hawaii today.

A Democratic Delegate in Washington during a Republican administration would be more lonesome than a spectator and entirely out of place in the scenery.

Honesty in public office, and a square deal for all is a platform that is certain to be winning ground for any man in a progressive and intelligent community.

The question for the electorate of this Territory to settle on November 8th is whether we shall go ahead, stand still or back up. The Republican party is progressive.

Kaula is still the comfortable and progressive. Kaula—a standing proof of the community value of making it practically unanimous when Republican principles are at stake.

Would McCandless take Keawehaku and Kaniho to Washington as assistants. And would he there point with pride to the arguments with which he endeavored to entice Hawaiian-Americans into wanting the franchise on a mess of false promises?

It is pleasant to learn that the electorate is to be strengthened this year by the voters of the service of the Federal government. They stand for progressive policies and will vote for candidates who will fulfill their duty in the upbuilding of Hawaii.

This new radicalism that Roosevelt is preaching is creating some curious combinations. It is reported that William Randolph Hearst and Dr.
Lyman Abbott are two of the editors who have enlisted under the radical banner and agreed to work hand in hand for the victory of radicalism.

Ninety-eight years ago Lord Nelson said "Let every man do his duty." That is all that is required of the citizens of Hawaii to keep this Territory on the crest of prosperity's wave, a position that it holds largely as a result of the efforts of Delegate Kuhio. Send him back to Washington for more prosperity; he'll get it.

THOSE WHO BELIEVE IN SCHOOLS

There should be no politics in the public schools, but it stands to reason that the citizens of a self-governing community should support the political party that demonstrates its appreciation of the needs of our children and promises to make ample provision for them.

For years past, the people of these islands have been urging a better recognition of the public schools. Various plans have been proposed and many schemes started for meeting the demands of the children.

Up to the time of the last Republican convention the plans and the schemes were temporary make-shifts.
No one accepted them as a permanent solution of the problem. The best that could be said was that the school situation was tided over till something better could be provided.

In the educational plank of the present Republican platform, a representative partisan organization goes to the heart of the subject for the first time in the history of the Territory.
A clear-cut and definite plan is now before the people, and for the first time in local history the voters who want better schools, the people who be run so expensively that an increased tax levy will be required, that is a matter for further consideration.

But whatever happens, under the Republican plan, the public schools are not to be sacrificed. The ches-tering and the pinching and the forced economy is to be put upon other departments less vital to the upbuilding of an intelligent and well-trained citizenship.

This Republican platform plan carries out an idea that is new to Hawaii, but not new to the progressive communities of the mainland.

The plan of providing for the public schools first, and appropriating liberally and taxing as much as is necessary, is American through and through. Any plan that makes the children the victims of unusual public economies is thoroughly unAmerican.

This school question is one that has been before the people for many years. There is just one way to meet it and do it right—make the public school appropriations a first charge upon the revenues of the Territory.

Men honestly in favor of the ample provision for the public schools will vote for the Republican candidates who have made the definite pledge to provide for the youth of the land come what may.

Give the children of the public schools a square deal.

HOLT INDICTMENT IS HELD VALID

Reasons Hokus should be excused from attendance until the expiration of a few days after his return to the Territory. He was still on a "valid leave of absence when the order was made. The court certainly had knowledge of the non-service of the three jurors and of the fact that it had itself excused five. Assuming that it did not know of the reasons for the excuse of Waterhouse, Potter and Glade, it at least, by its ruling granting the motion, ratified the action, whatever it had been, of the foreman in excusing them. It accepted the statement of the prosecuting officer as correct, and ratifying the excuse, ordered five additional jurors summoned."

The decision dismisses the exception upon which the case was brought before the Supreme Court in Holt's behalf by his attorneys, Kinney, Hallou, Promer & Anderson and A. S. Humphreys.

JOE FERRAJI IS CHARGED

Alleged Garroter Is Accused
Of Three Highway
Robberies.

Joseph Ferraji has had five different charges laid against him at the police station. Three of his alleged offenses are highway robbery, and he might, if convicted, get sentences amounting to sixty years imprisonment. The other two charges against Ferraji are of larceny in the first and second degree. He has confessed to the larceny charges and has described to actling Chief Kellett how he entered a bicycle store during the absence of the proprietor and, after opening the cash register drawer, by ringing up five cents, took twelve dollars.

Ferraji has also confessed to having stolen a gold watch and also a silver one from other persons. He told

Don't Poison Baby.

Forty years ago almost every mother thought her child must have paregoric or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a few drops too many will produce the sleep from which there is no waking. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labeling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. Castoria does not contain narcotics.

aside from my own family experience, I have, in my years of practice, found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."

SHORT SHOTS AT CAMPAIGN

Republicans Have Meeting for Tomorrow Night at Waialua.

Republicans will be out on mass at Waialua tomorrow night. A meeting has been arranged there, and some of the candidates from Honolulu will probably attend. A large number of the voters there are Portuguese and A. D. Castro, a member of the last legislature, has been asked to speak.
Kuhio's campaign on Hawaii is meeting with good results everywhere, according to news that has reached Republican headquarters here. He is making a vigorous fight and Link Mc-Candless will run far behind what he has predicted on the big island.

The second precinct of the fourth district will hold a meeting tomorrow night at the public baths, Waikiki.
Matters relating to precinct work will be taken up.

Things are pretty quiet around Democratic headquarters. There will not be much doing until Link Mc-Candless gets back and supplies some powder.

Charles Chillingworth, Republican candidate for the Senate, says he is well pleased with his prospects. Chil-lingworth figures a big majority for Kuhio and his party.

William Williamson, of the stock exchange, who is also a Republican candidate for the House, is making a quiet but effective campaign among the business men.
